

THE HANDBOOK OF
Organic and Fair Trade
Food Marketing

Edited by
Simon Wright and Diane McCrea

Published with support from Sainsbury's Supermarkets

Blackwell Publishing

Conad	233
Coop	234
Crai	234
Despar	234
Esselunga	234
Gruppo PAM	235
Rewe italia	235
Selex	235
Review of the market for fair trade food and drink	236
Coop Italia	236
Botteghe del Mondo	237
CTM Altromercato	237
Commercio Alternativo	237
Libero Mondo	237
12 Organic and Fair Trade Marketing in the USA	239
ELAINE LIPSON
Introduction	239
Projected growth of the organic market	240
High growth organic categories	241
Challenges to the organic dairy sector	242
The quandary of imported ingredients	242
The development of USDA organic standards and labelling	243
Four categories of organic labels	244
National Organic Standards Board	244
Harvey v. Veneman and changes to USDA organic standards	245
Sales outlets for organic foods in the USA	247
Whole Foods Market	247
Wild Oats	248
Trader Joe's	248
Independent natural foods stores	249
Mainstream supermarkets	249
Mass-market stores and Wal-Mart	249
Farmers markets and CSA farms	251
Fair trade in the USA	251
US sales of fair trade coffee	252
Other fair trade commodities in the USA	253
Consumer interest in other eco-labels	253
Organic and eco-labels for non-food products	254
Conclusion	254
Appendix	255

Trade, advocacy, research and regulatory organizations:
contact information	255
Companies: contact Information	257
Recommended periodicals	260
Books	260
Trade shows	261
13 Organic and Fair Trade Crossover and Convergence	262
JOHN BOWES AND DAVID CROFT
Setting the scene	262
The ethical consumer	263
Who cares about ethics?	265
In the beginning	266
Making the breakthrough	267
Dealing with the devil?	271
New challenges ahead	274
Convergence and divergence	277
Managing momentum	280
Appendix: Further Information – Useful Organic and Fair Trade Websites	284
SIMON WRIGHT
Organic brands	284
Organic organisations	285
Organic certifying bodies	285
Fair trade brands	286
Fair trade organisations	286
Retailers	286
Consumer orientated	287
Trade magazines and information services	287
Trade shows	287
Index	289